THE 18TH FLOOR AT THE STANDARD

848 Washington Street; 212.645.4646

Hands down my favorite bar in the city right now. If you can get yourself in the bar formerly known as the Boom Boom Room, post-9 P.M., pat yourself on the back! But if you're like me and not famous or a friend of André's, your best bet is to go for happy hour. They are open to the public until 8:30 P.M.

THE BRESLIN

16 West 29th Street; 212.679.2222

The Ace Hotel is still super hot. Sit in the lobby and sip on a Stumptown coffee or belly up to the Breslin Bar for a brewski and a lamb burger.

ABC

35 East 18th Street (near Broadway); 212.475.5829

Jean Georges has been busy! His new venture attached to ABC Carpet and Home is totally adorable and the food is delish. It's the thing for a girls' night out.

JANIS

139 West 10th Street (between Greenwich Avenue and Waverly Place); 212.206.9229

Packed on weekends with a super hip downtown crowd, head on down to the subterranean dancing den, where they rotate European D.J.'s like Celine Danhier, Delphine Danhier, Audrey Lefevre, Benjamin Bernet, and Dylan Monroe.

KENMARE

98 Kenmare Street (near Cleveland Place); 212.274.9898

Kenmare is the combined effort of Joey Campanaro of The Little Owl (love!) and nightlife dons Paul Seigny and Nur Khan of Rose Bar. With a cast of the hottest restaurateurs, it's tough to get a reservation at this new spot...but it's bustling at the seams with the hot and hip, so it's well worth the wait.

THE LION

62 West 9th Street

The Waverly's very own John DeLucie roars in a new venture with The Lion—turning over a West Village townhouse/social club into a swanky new restaurant. The fare promises to be traditional and unfussy.

MEATBALL SHOP

84 Stanton Street (near Allen Street); 212.982.8895

Meatballs are the meat of the moment, and this is the place to get them. Super casual and fun, the chef here worked at one of my favorite restaurants ever, SPQR in San Fran.

PULINO'S BAR AND PIZZERIA

282 Bowery (@ Houston); 917.289.9357

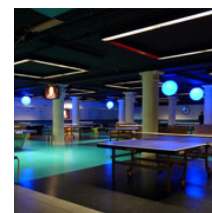

Keith McNally's new pizza spot on the Bowery looks just like Schiller's AND serves some of the best pizza I've had, maybe ever—what's not to love?

QUATTRO

246 Spring Street; 212.842.4500

The sister of one of my absolute favorite places to dine in Miami! Sophisticated for downtown and chicly decorated, the food's just as good as the South Beach counterpart.

SPiN

48 East 23rd Street; 212.982.8802

Ping Pong, hot people, and a bar—I'm in heaven. SPiN is the ideal antidote to a sweltering summer afternoon. Stop in for a few heated matches, a grilled cheese, and then cool down with a boozy ice-pop.

WHAT'S HOT?

1940'S POLYNESIA is the
NEW 1920'S PROHIBITION

The tiki cocktail is making a comeback in a big way! Check out the latest, greatest spots that toast this sweet spirit in a flaming volcano cup!

CIENFUEGOS

443 East 6th Street (@ Avenue A); 212.614.6818

Situated on the corner of 6th Street and A, this colorful bar pays homage to the sugarcane spirit with punch bowls, tin cups, Cuban snacks and, of course, little umbrellas. With the success of both Mayahuel and Death & Company, I imagine this place will be blazing this summer.

PAINKILLER

49 Essex Street; 212.777.8454

Painkiller, boasting 1940's style Polynesian cocktails, opened in the former East Side Company Bar space by two of the owners of Queens speakeasy Dutch Kills.

THE RUSTY KNOT

425 West Street; 212.645.5668

A trailblazer in the tiki cocktail arena, The Rusty Knot has been around for a for a little while, but still reigns as an awesome drinking den.

BIKINI BAR SIP N' SURF

148 Duane Street; 212.571.6737

Part bespoke surfboard and swimwear shop, part Polynesian-inspired bar, this Tribeca storefront is filled with kitschy pacific coast surf paraphernalia and the tasty cocktails are a well-kept secret only for those in-the-know.

THE FOOD TRUCK WARS

The best way to keep up with New York City food trucks this summer is on TWITTER.

Food trucks are as hot as the summer sunshine. Instead of venturing all the way across town for your favorite grub, have it brought to you. That's what these mobile restaurants were invented for!

THE BIG GAY ICE CREAM TRUCK

<http://twitter.com/biggayicecream>

I mean the name itself is enough to put a smile on even the saddest face. Pair that with tasty and interesting ice-cream flavors like olive oil and sea salt or Nutella and bacon and you might just have the cutest dang truck in all of Manhattan. Rainbow sprinkles anyone?

CALEXICO CART

<http://twitter.com/CalexicoCart>

The three dudes from SoCal who started this gourmet Cal-Mex street food truck are my heroes. Just try the asada tacos...you'll see.

FRITES 'N' MEATS

<http://twitter.com/fritesnmeats>

Frites 'N' Meats' motto is "We ain't fancy, but we're good." And they totally are! Although the menu is based around two main foods—burgers and fries—there are hundreds of different creations that can be made.

GO BURGER

<http://twitter.com/goburger>

Debuting this summer, the GO Burger truck is the first food truck from BLT Restaurant Group. They will be serving burgers, Kobe hot dogs, French fries, salad, sweets, and shakes. Fancy!

RICKSHAW DUMPLING TRUCK

<http://twitter.com/RickshawTruck>

The latest addition to the Rickshaw family is this mobile version. Serving up piping hot dumplings daily made from pork, chicken, duck, edamame, and more, with tons of different dipping sauces, Chinatown will seem just that much closer.

THE TREATS TRUCK

<http://twitter.com/thetreatstruck>

This sweet little truck has so many die-hard followers that they have their "Customer of the Month" featured on the side of the truck! It roams the streets of New York satisfying sweet teeth one block at a time.

WAFFLES & DINGES

<http://twitter.com/waffletruck>

Serving Belgian waffles topped with everything from fruit to Nutella and ice-cream, this unique sweet treat hits the spot when you're in the mood for something a little different.

SCHNITZEL TRUCK

<http://twitter.com/schnitzeltruck>

Grab your lederhosen people, this truck serves schnitzel and oh so much more!

PAPA PERRONE

<http://twitter.com/PapaPerrone>

Home of the riceball, seriously. I mean who doesn't love a riceball?

EDDIE'S PIZZA TRUCK

<http://twitter.com/EddiesPizzaNY>

Serving up some of the best pies in the city, this pizza truck will even deliver to your picnic blanket on movie nights in Bryant Park.

ASIA DOG

<http://twitter.com/asiadognyc>

I love a hot dog. I also love Asian food. These are bound to be raddest dogs on the street.

EL DIABLO TACOS

<http://twitter.com/ELDiabloTacos>

Jonesing for a mid-shopping spree tamale or taco? No fear...El Diablo Tacos is here!

STREET SWEETS

<http://twitter.com/StreetSweets>

Best coffee and doughnuts on the street! Hands down.

CUPCAKE STOP

<http://twitter.com/CupcakeStop>

The great thing about New York is you can pretty much get a darn good cupcake no matter where you are. Cupcake Stop makes your sugar high hunt just a bit easier.

5 NINTH
5 Ninth Avenue (@ Gansevoort Street); 212.929.9460
Nestled in the back of a stately brownstone, you'll find a rose garden accented by ivy-covered walls—perfect for a drink or a laid-back dinner.

10 DOWNING
10 Downing (@ 6th Avenue); 212.255.0300
The ideal spot for a casual neighborhood bite, 10 Downing offers lots of outdoor seating so you just might be able to snag a table on the sidewalk without waiting an eternity.

 AURORA
70 Grand Street (@ Wythe Avenue); 718.388.5100
A cozy rustic Italian restaurant in Brooklyn with a magical garden in the back, Aurora is one of my favorites! The SoHo location also has a couple of small tables out front—tough to land, but great for a date!

A VOCE MADISON
41 Madison Avenue; 212.545.8555
With a spacious patio and the best pasta in the neighborhood, A Voce is my favorite spot for outdoor dining in the area.

 BARBUTO
775 Washington Street; 212.924.9700
Market-driven Italian, in a converted garage with a hip industrial vibe in the far West Village. Enough said.

BAROLO
398 West Broadway (near Spring Street); 212.226.1102
Barolo is a bit touristy, but it has the right kind of tourists: Italian ones who know this is where to find la dolce vita.

 BAR PITTI
268 Avenue of the Americas; 212.982.3300
Da Silvano's more casual next-door neighbor, this is one of my faves for grabbing a sidewalk seat and people watching with a little Sangiovese.

NEW!

 BETEL
51 Grove Street (near Bleeker Street); 212.352.0460
This cozy new spot in the Village boasts cuisine inspired by Thai street food and a sleek, modern design that all-around makes it super cute.

NEW!

BLT BAR AND GRILL
W New York Downtown, 123 Washington Street; 646.826.8600
Opening in the brand new W New York Downtown, BLT Bar and Grill serves an extensive menu of upscale tavern cuisine including burgers, sandwiches, and of course the yummy desserts that made the original BLT Burger a hit.

BOBO
181 West 10th Street; 212.488.2626
I just adore this spot for its patio—one of the best in the city—a second-floor garden where you can linger over a long, drawn-out dinner with friends.

BOTTINO
246 Tenth Avenue; 212.206.6766
This casual Italian joint in West Chelsea attracts artists and trend-setters alike to its plant-filled garden located out back.

CENTRAL PARK BOATHOUSE
Park Drive North (@ 72nd Street); 212.517.2233
Tourists will always be a fact of life at the Boathouse. But when you need to entertain one it's a great place to go.

BRYANT PARK GRILL
25 West 40th Street; 212.840.6500
There's nothing better than a warm-weather lunch in Bryant Park. Although the grab-and-go from 'wichcraft is great, if you're up for something a bit more civilized, go for a sit-down at BPG. You won't regret it.

 CHAR NO. 4
196 Smith Street; 718.643.2106
BBQ and bourbon reign at this cute Southern comfort-food favorite in Cobble Hill.

BUTTERMILK CHANNEL
524 Court Street; 718.852.8490
I love going to this hip seasonal American bistro in Brooklyn...as do a bunch of locals since it's packed for brunch every weekend. Get there early!

 CHOPTANK
308-310 Bleeker Street; 212.675.2009
If you can't make it to the beach, may the beach come to you! Choptank is a little piece of the Chesapeake Bay smack-dab in the West Village.

CAFÉ ST. BARTS
109 E. 50th Street; 212.593.3333
Touristy yes, but the food here is consistent and the patio, located next to historic St. Bart's Church, is a pleasant summer destination.

 CORSINO
637 Hudson Street; 212.242.3093
The latest and greatest from the guys behind Inoteca and 'Ino, Corsino opened in the former Frederick's downtown space. The menu is focused on wine and solid, affordable Italian food. Grab one of the two tables by the windows.

 CAFÉ SELECT
212 Lafayette Street; 212.925.9322
The modern Swiss menu is a little odd, but the crowd certainly is hip at Serge Becker's little spot. Sneak past the kitchen to relax in the secret back patio. It's divine.

DA SILVANO
260 6th Avenue; 212.982.2343
This Greenwich Village Italian hot spot's sidewalks are flanked with models and the like. Thirsty? The white sangria is to die for!

* EXTRA VIRGIN
259 West 4th Street; 212.691.9359

A favorite for weekend brunch (you must get the French toast!), Extra Virgin has some of the most coveted sidewalk tables on 4th Street from May through September.

NEW!

DOS CAMINOS MEATPACKING
675 Hudson Street; 212.699.2400

Stephen Hanson's fourth location, Dos Caminos took over the old Vento space in the Meatpacking District. With plenty of fresh air seating, this is a great place to throw back some guac and margaritas!

NEW!

* FAUSTINA
25 Cooper Square; 212.475.3400

Scott Conant took over the restaurant at the Cooper Square Hotel this year and it's great. The back patio seating is even better!

DOUBLE CROWN
316 Bowery; 212.254.0350

The design firm AvroKO's second proprietary restaurant finds its inspiration by way of nineteenth-century British colonialism in the Far East. And they make a mean Pimm's Cup.

FRANKIE'S 457 SPUTINO
457 Court Street; 718.403.9260

You can't beat Frankie's with its amazing selection of cheese, charcuterie, and pasta and a sweet little patio in the back! I love, love, love this spot in the summer!

Great Italian, a cool scene and tons of outdoor tables, Gemma has become an outstanding old standby.

HABANA OUTPOST
757 Fulton Street (@ South Portland Avenue), Fort Greene, Brooklyn; 718.858.9500
The Brooklyn version of the popular Nolita diner Café Habana, Habana Outpost is said to be even better than the original. Gasp!

HARRY'S LIC AT WATER TAXI BEACH
2-03 Borden Avenue, Long Island City; 212.742.1969
It's worth a visit just for the sheer novelty and the fact that it's a fab post-PSI stop: sweet views of Midtown and cheap beer.

LA BOTTEGA
Terrace of the Maritime Hotel, 88 Ninth Avenue (@ 17th Street); 212.243.8400
An oldie but a goodie, this patio gets packed, so come early and definitely plan to stay for dinner. They won't let you have a table if you're just drinking.

* LA ESQUINA
106 Kenmare Street; 646.613.7100
If you can stand the wait for the restaurant downstairs, the taqueria upstairs is one of my favorite places in the city to grab a casual, outdoor dinner and Mexican beer on a hot night.

A simple patio bistro—just the place for a chill night with friends.

LORELEY BIERGARTEN
7 Rivington Street (near Chrystie Street); 212.253.7077
It's not as authentic as the Bohemian, but much more convenient and just the place to kill a little time on a sunny afternoon or while waiting for a table at Freeman's.

MAX
51 Avenue B (between 3rd and 4th Streets); 212.539.0111
I heart Italian, and this spot has the best lasagna in town, plus the cozy patio is super for a cheap and cheerful night out.

* MORANDI

1 Water Street, Brooklyn; 718.522.5200
Worth the trek for the right occasion, this N.Y.C. landmark has stunning views of the city.

VESPA RESTAURANT
1625 2nd Avenue; 212.472.2050
This funky European-style restaurant, lounge, and wine bar has an adorable back patio.

 SHAKE SHACK

The all German and Austrian line-up of beers paired with ping pong and over-sized pretzels makes this one of Downtown's most convivial outdoor drinking spots.

HUDSON SKY TERRACE
356 West 58th Street; 212.554.6000
The Hudson Hotel reopened their 15th floor patio to the public last year, and it's gorgeous. Stretch out in a hammock while gazing out over Hudson River, while sipping on a delish mango ginger margarita. Doesn't that sound perfect?

BAR D'EAU AT THE TRUMP SOHO
246 Spring Street; 212.842.5500
Bar d'Eau is opening this summer on the Trump SoHo Hotel's seventh floor spa level. The outdoor terrace is an entertainment haven, complete with a pool and bocce ball court.

HOTEL ON RIVINGTON PENTHOUSE
107 Rivington Street; 212.475.2600
For a truly awe-inspiring vista, make your way down to the Hotel on Rivington and up to the Penthouse. Taking up the top three floors, it features a lounge area, full bar, dance floor, and, at the very top, a hot tub...so be sure to stow a bikini in your purse, and call ahead to make a reservation before heading over.

THE BOWERY HOTEL
335 Bowery; 212.505.9100
The Bowery Hotel has some of the best open-air drinking in the city. Snag a table in the garden at one of the "reserved for hotel guests only" tables or make your way past the doorman and guest list to the second floor bar that originally was only used for special events.

THE YARD AT THE SOHO GRAND HOTEL
310 West Broadway (near Grand Street); 212.965.3588
It's little slice of suburbia in the city, like a backyard barbecue party for the whole neighborhood. PS: they welcome four-legged friends too, so bring your pups!

THE FRYING PAN
West 26th Street and Hudson River Park
This salvaged boat docked on the Hudson is the ultimate dive bar. Scarf down a burger with a bucket of beers while basking in the sunshine or glow of the stars, all set to live music.

BOHEMIAN HALL BEER GARDEN

RAINES LAW ROOM
48 West 17th Street; 212.242.0600
You may know this place as one of the most well thought out speakeasies, accessed by way of an unmarked staircase with entry allowed after you ring the doorbell. What you may not know is that there is a small patio out back with a trellis and garden, designed by Milk and Honey alum Michael McIlroy, where they grow herbs for their specialty cocktails.
